Maegan Bishop

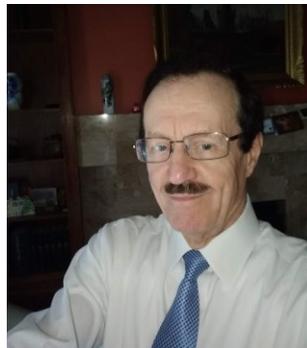

Classical Music Discovery Class

Maegan Bishop is a choral and elementary music specialist committed to helping children find joy and meaning in music. She holds a Bachelor of Arts and Bachelor of Education degrees and has completed training in the Orff and Kodaly methodologies. She currently teaches music to students in Grades 4 through 6 at Rundle College Elementary.

Jonathan Lewis
Flamenco Violin Enrichment Class and Performance

Jonathan is a Calgary based musician and performer. He has worked with numerous artists, playing violin and electric violin, and touring internationally. You can often hear him in performance with Greek music ensemble The Rembetika Hipsters, or Roma-rock ensemble The Plaid Tongued Devils. He also co-directs a flamenco ensemble, 12 Musas, in collaboration with dancer Anastassiia La Musa. His original compositions have been featured in many theatrical productions for companies such as Theatre Calgary, Alberta Theatre Projects, One Yellow Rabbit, The Shakespeare Company, Quest Theatre, and others.

Cenek J Vrba
Violin Masterclasses

Czech-born violinist Cenek J.Vrba is recognized as one of the foremost Canadian violinists. He has performed as soloist and concertmaster with orchestras in North America, China, Japan and in Europe's concert halls of Vienna, Prague, Berlin, Amsterdam London, Paris and Madrid. He received his early musical education in the Czech Republic at the State Conservatory of Music and later at the Janacek Academy of Musical Arts. He has recorded for the Japanese label Fontec and in North America for Lyra and CBC Records. He was honoured by the Government of Canada when he received the Commemorative Medal for the 125th anniversary of Canadian Confederation, in recognition of his contribution to the arts. Later he was awarded by the Czech government the Masaryk Prize, recognizing him as one of the outstanding Czech musicians abroad. His students have been members of many professional orchestras, chamber groups and teaching institutions around the world.

Holly Blazina
Flamenco Guitar Enrichment Class and Performance

Guitarist Holly Blazina creates an immersive world of beauty and sound that draws in music lovers and Flamenco aficionados alike. The notes emanating from her instrument disarm unsuspecting listeners as they are ushered into an ethereal experience that is exotic, evocative, buoyant and deeply nourishing.

When first exposed to Flamenco's passionate, soulful melodies and driving rhythms, Holly knew she had found her home musically. This quickly led to a lifelong commitment to the art of Flamenco. Holly regularly performs as a soloist, in traditional Flamenco ensembles, as well as with other musicians from the jazz, classical and world music genres, delighting and inspiring audiences wherever she plays.

Holly produces her own public and in-home concerts, and has built a sizable following of repeat private event clients. She was a featured guest for both the Calgary and Edmonton International Flamenco Festivals, and participates as an instructor and performer each year at Calgary's Classical Guitarfest West.

Holly has had the good fortune of studying intensively with renowned artists both in Spain and North America. Her debut recording, Transcendencia, received funding from the Canada Council for the Arts and FACTOR. It features her original compositions and was released in October, 2017.
